

Northern RingSports Kickboxing Championships

The Northern Ringsport Championship is a light contact event intended to bring on developing talent in a safe and controlled format. For this reason, it is not open to experienced fighters, all forms of fight experience must be taken into account by fighters/coaches when entering competitors for each category. The following definitions are for guidance as to what is determined as 'Novice' and 'Intermediate', if coaches/ competitors are unsure of the criteria above, please contact the organisers for clarity.

NOVICE

Any more than the stated amount of any of these criteria means move into intermediate.

- No more than 3 full contact fights in a ring/cage, regardless of outcomes (including Full Contact Kickboxing, K1 Kickboxing, Muay Thai, Boxing, MMA or any other full contact combat sport)
- No more than 5 light contact or points fighting tournaments (semi-contact, taekwondo, karate, kung fu etc)
- No more than 5 interclubs entered (Kickboxing, Muay Thai, MMA)

INTERMEDIATE

All fight experience should be taken into consideration.

- Never competed at a professional level in any full contact combat sport
- No more than 8 full contact fights in a ring/cage, regardless of outcomes (including Full Contact Kickboxing, K1 Kickboxing, Muay Thai, Boxing, MMA or any other full contact combat sport)
- Never competed at international level, representing national team in any form of fighting (i.e. Olympics for Team GB in Taekwondo, world championships for semi-contact points fighting etc)

WEIGHT CATEGORIES

- Categories are divided into increments of 5kg
- In the event that only one person is entered into a category, the organisers have the right to move them up/down a category where possible, with the maximum weight differential allowed being 5kg (i.e. 72kg vs 68kg is ok but 74kg vs 68kg is not!)
- Any entrant that can not be matched through no fault of their own, will receive a full refund of entry fee
- Any entrant not matched due to their weight being entered incorrectly by themselves or coach will not be refunded
- All competitors weights are to be checked on the day of the championships, except for those competitors entered into the heaviest categories that have no upper weight limit.
